VOLUME LXXI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, JULY 31, 1865.

NUMBER 15+

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY
EDGAR SNOWDEN, SR.
OFFICE—No. 104, King street, over
French's Book Store.

The Late Elections is Richmond Null and Void.
"HEADQRS. DISTRICT OF HENRICO,"
"RICHMOND, VA., Jy. 28, 1865."

"Special Orders No. 72.

"Whereas satisfactory evidence has been furnished at these headquarters that, at the election held in the city of Richmond, on the 25th instant, for municipal officers, voters were excluded on the ground of having lost their residence by reason of their absence as soldiers in the United States army during the rebellion, when no such ground was taken as against soldiers absent in the rebel army; and whereas, with but few exceptions, all of the officers elected at said municipal election have been prominent and conspicuous in inaugurating and sustaining the rebellion; and whereas, the issue was distinctly made and openly avowed at said election, as between those men who had aided and abetted in the war against the United States authority, and those who had, with their lives, defended the flag of our country;

"Therefore, justice to the thousands who have fallen on the battle-field or by disease, in their efforts to put down this rebellion, and to those who are now returning to their homes in this district, after four years of suffering, toil, privations, and dangers incurred in fighting treason, demands that these persons who were so lately contributing all their efforts to sustain treason, and overthrow this Government, should not be installed into office and entrusted with power;

"Hence it is hereby declared that the United States military authorities of this city will regard the said municipal elections held in this city on the 25th instant as null and void, excepting only the election of the Clerk of the Hustings Court; and each and every person elected to office—excepting said Clerk of the Hustings Court—is prohibited from exercising the duties appertaining thereto.

"By command of Brevet Major General Turner: "E. LEWIS MOORE,
"Assistant Adjutant General."

LATER FROM EUROPE.

The steamship City of New York brings dates to the 20th.

The elections in England still absorbed attention. The Liberals had gained. Gladstone is defeated in Oxford.

Cotton closed dull, and with a downward tendency. Breadstuffs quiet; corn firmer; provisions quiet and steady.

The Great Eastern arrived off Valencia on the 19th, having towed the steamer with the shore end of the cable to that place.

Mr. Gladstone is now running for South Lancashire.

The Prince of Orange and the Princess Helena are to be married.

The French Prince Imperial is convalescent. The cholera in Egypt is decreasing.

MEXICO.

The famous Mexican General, Antonio Lopez de Santa Anna, has issued a pronunciamiento to his countrymen, from the Island of St. Thomas, where he has been living of late in strict retirement, repudiating the Empire, and declaring for the Republic. What is Santa Anna's influence in Mexico, now, we do not know.

A dispatch from Washington says:—"Affairs on the Rio Grande cause considerable uneasiness here. Full credit is given to the report of the unauthorized crossing and recrossing of the border."

Col. Wood, formerly editor of the Vicksburg Whig, is in New York, arranging for an expedition to Brazil. He goes out on behalf of some five or six hundred Mississippi families, to see if he cannot purchase a tract of country twelve miles square on the Amazon, for the purpose of a permanent settlement. The capital subscribed is said to be one million of dollars.

The New Orleans Picayune says: "We understand that on account of the demoralization of negro labor in many parts of the State, the white population have vigorously and industriously taken hold of the work themselves, and are producing some of the best crops now growing."

Several deaths occurred in Baltimore on Friday and Saturday last, from heat and exposure.
